Two Mental Health Clinics Receive $40,000 State Grant

A grant of $40,000 for the Granite City and Alton mental health clinics was announced Monday by Gov. William G. Stratton along with other mental health grants totaling over a million dollars.

The largest part of appropriations for 28 state mental health clinics for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1960, will be used for salaries.

In Granite City and Alton, the clinics will seek to increase their full-time staffs from two to four with state grants which came from state and federal funds.

Currently, each clinic has a full-time staff of a secretary-receptionist and a psychiatric social worker and each has a psychologist serving patients. Full-time psychologists, and psychiatrists, and psychologists are being sought.

At the Granite City clinic, opened in January 1960, Mrs. Harriet Mercer is the secretary-receptionist and Mrs. Jo Crouch is the social worker. The part-time staff are John McNamee, psychiatrist and Dr. Donald Nachand, psychologist.

Heavy Response Here
The local clinic has received a large response. Mrs. Mercer said that the two centers have handled 1062 interviews since they opened. "More and more people are becoming aware of the clinics," she said.

In addition to state support, the clinics hope to receive $20,000 in 1960-61 from local sources. The area, the 25th District, Mrs. Michael Haas of Belleville and Schaefer O'Neill of Alton.

2 Children Are Hurt In Falls

A plunge from a tree lacerated the forehead, caused abrasions to the right knee and dislocated a finger of Dale McGuire, nine son of Lawrence McGuire, 1852 Spring avenue at 11:30 a.m. yesterday. The boy was released from the St. Elizabeth Hospital emergency room after the wounds were cleaned and sutured.

Patricia Tester, five, daughter of Joel Tester, 4028 Vespucci avenue, fell from a bicycle and fractured her left arm at 6 a.m. Tuesday. X-rays were taken and the brace was applied and the child was released.

Robbery At VFW Club Nets Over $400

Man Uses Ice Pick To Guard Employee, Ties Hands Before Leaving

BULLETIN

A man who had been robbing the VFW club yesterday was taken into custody by Granite City police shortly before 1 p.m. today after contacting the department by telephone and identifying himself as the bandit.

No details were available at 1:30 p.m., but police said they are positive that the man was responsible for the robbery. He has admitted it during questioning at the police station.

Granite City police today are searching for registration numbers of the black checked sedan which had connection with an armed robbery "between $400 and $500 early yesterday afternoon."

Armed with an ice pick, the man forced the bartender of the VFW club, 21st street and Washington avenue, to open the cash register and held an ice pick in my hand," he said.

No other customers were in the club at the time. After Gisson registered the cash register, the man took it into the kitchen, hid him on the floor, and tied his hands behind his back with Gisson's belt.

"He told me to be quiet, and it wouldn't be hurt," Gisson said.

After a short time, Gisson managed to snap the belt loose and escaped. He made his way to Kent's confectionary at 21st and Lee avenue, and had the proprietor summon the police.

Gisson described the man as about 4'8", weighing 145 pounds and having short brown hair of age. His means of transportation was not known.

5 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC DEATH

Police Utilizing Charts To Pinpoint Accidents, Crimes

Local police take a hard look to no one when it comes to trying either new or time-tested methods in the constant attempt to cut down on crime and traffic accidents in their sections of the Quad-City area.

Now more and more people on the road are taking to wearing headgear and high-visibility clothing—and with encouraging figures showing an increasing crime rate, Madison Police Chief Barney Fraundorf and his counterpart in Venice, Chief Robert Trower, have struck upon an effective means in aiding their department in the overall service and protection to residents.

What is this secret weapon? Actually nothing more than a city map and some colored pins—but that's the secret story.

What, When, Where?
Like Wall street stockbrokers and other well-studied in the use of charts and graphs, the two police departments started using graphic aid charts this year to update their records and keep a visual running file on what was happening where and when in their cities.

In theory and practice, the entire plan is simplicity itself, with no cumbersome, time-consuming details.

Both the Madison and Venice police have acquired hand-backed wall charts of their respective cities. By using round-headed pins of special colors, officers can keep tab on accidents and crime incidents with pinpoint accuracy as it looks on a map.

On the Venice chart, yellow pins denote auto accidents with injuries, blue pins denote personal injuries involved. Groups of black and yellow were spotted thickly at three locations: Market and Broadway; Market and State; and Fourth and Broadway.

As an example, Chief Fraundorf pointed to a cluster of yellow pins grouped at a prominent intersection. Those white pins, he said, represent car accidents. From their number it is obvious the location is a hot spot for that brand of criminal offense.

Stove Electrocutes Ormerle Rice, 40

An accidental electrocution took the life of a former Granite City resident about 7:30 p.m. yesterday.

Rice, 40, Rural Route Four, Granite drive, Edwarwsville, was found dead Tuesday evening by a friend who came to do some shopping. An inquest determined that he had accidentally electrocuted himself while painting the interior of his home about 12 hours before being found.

Rice had been living alone since his wife died last year.

Born in Perry County, Mr. Rice resided in Granite City 37 years before moving to Edwardsville two and a half years ago. He was employed by Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Illinois University as a carpenter, and was a member of Carpenters Local 633. Mr. Rice graduated from Granite City high school and was soon found to be a sharp student in the Army during World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mae (Rice) Rice, 39, Nathan Al-Rice and Otto William Rice and a daughter, Winona Ann Rice, of Edwardsville; a brother, Leland Rice, and two sisters, Mae Thomas (Garrison) Epperson, Granite City, and Mrs. William (Jean) Tackett, Springfield, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rice, Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

School Economy Drive Picks Up Speed

GCHS Addition Within Budget, May Connect Building With Gym

The Granite City school economy drive launched due to increasing difficulty in limiting or reducing debt was given further impetus Tuesday night when the board devoted most of its meeting to discussions of how to trim expenses.

Supt. Harold M. Kaiser reported that progress is being made in getting the most use out of the district's tax dollars, and board members suggested that standardization of equipment might help save money over time as a way of cutting costs.

A study of present inventory systems also was suggested by the board, which delayed payment of part of the semi-monthly bill to obtain additional information.

With the federally-financed high school addition being kept well within its budget, Dr. Kaiser said the board might consider a new addition to the gymnasium building to offset a larger excess during bad weather.

Food Costs Below Retail

In reviewing cost-cutting with the board, the superintendent and Administrative Assistant Fred J. Koenig said other suggestions to show that competitive bidding has brought cafeteria food costs below the retail prices offered at weekend sales events.

Comparing current appetizers, such as apples, cherries, mixed fruit, peach halves and slices, corn, green beans, baked beans, fruit and spinach, the administration found savings of 10 percent, averaging differences ranging from 12% to 100%.

and civil defense, $2350 special, $500 to $700 for Census. The mayor stressed that in the private survey, residents will be asked to do nothing; it will be, in effect, merely a total resident head count. He urged active participation and cooperation.

In the ensuing discussion, Mayor Stephen Maers said this is the only practical method to determine the 5% margin of error.

City Clerk Percy Lutz cited current expenditures due for payment of $9632 for the city and $7000 for the bridge. The council approved payment.

Mayor Maers told the group he has received a petition signed by 50 residents of the Fifth and Sixth wards asking the closing of almost nightly interference with their TV reception. He said that the city will employ three men, probably college students, to begin the survey sometime next week. Two men will be assigned to the eastern proper and one to the West Madison area, paying close attention to those sections bordering the corporate limits.

If the results showed a 5% deviation from the present census, the city office would be closed by 10 a.m. on Aug. 1. Broadcast could be sought at no additional expense to the municipality.

The officials believe the census report, showing a decrease in population, will be accurate.

Gold Medallion Home, All Electric, To Open

The Illinois Power Co., working in close harmony with builder Henry Ross, will cut a blue ribbon for the first Gold Medal Home in the Quad-City area during a sneak-preview Saturday at 3 p.m. However, public inspection of the complete residential home, comprising 1,000 square feet of living space, will not officially begin until 1 p.m. Sunday.

Located at 2304 Johnson road, the new house features the latest developments in electric heating and air conditioning. All electric heating units are placed in the kitchen and eat-in room; individually controlled by a thermostat. With this type of radiant heating, there is no noise or draft, power firm officials said.

The certified adequate wiring used in a gold medal home supplies full power for the house. A light switch pointed out by Miss Jo Leslie, who has had design expert, is the split-wire receptacles in the kitchen for high efficiency use of small appliances.

Switches, throughout the house, are all door-knob high, and the master control in the main bedroom will control nine room lights and a path of light for safety at night.

Three separate wall-installed air conditioners provide for summer time cooling, with the result that a house need hardly ever be opened.

Once more outside the home,

MISS JO LESLIE opens the door to Quad-Cities' first gold medallion home. Located at 2304 Johnson road, the model home features electrical innovations offered by the Illinois Power Co. It will be open to the public beginning Sunday at 1 p.m.

In the Golden Award Kitchen, the Illinois Power Co. has designed a kitchen which will aid the homemaker in designing a kitchen in which she will enjoy working.

The light switch, Miss Leslie remarked, has ample storage space plus sufficient counter working room for food preparation and storage. It also features built in electric range, automatic dishwasher, electric food dis-poser, and electric can opener.

There is special lighting over the end of the food work counter.

On the right, Miss Leslie pointed out the gold

medallion at the front of the house, the height of the ceiling in presenting unusual features, pointed to a gold transformer perched high on a utility pole at the back of the lot.

6th Inning Balk, Triple Play Help Junior Legion To 11th Victory of Season

The Junior Legion team from Tri-City American Legion Post 113 became champions of the northern division of the 22nd district league by claiming their 11th win on the board Tuesday evening, but it took a balk by the opposing pitcher before Mathews City could post a 4-3 win over Massonahut at Wilson Park.

Bill Leonard, who had gone all the way for the visitors, pitched seven-hit baseball. He was still in the game after a massed rally to tie the game, with two runs in the fifth, but was the victim of his own mistake.

He made a one-out single to Grant Taksmajian in the sixth, though Taksmajian was trapped off base and tagged out by the catcher. Dave Sparks, who had Mathews City in triples, added another one to his collection after Taksmajian, whom he replaced, struck out the ball-game, which was called because of darkness.

The game was a one-out single on Tony Manni and visions of extra innings. Leonard interrupted his motion in making the pitch to Manni, and Sparks walked across the plate to end the ball-game, which was called because of darkness.

The game's final play was not the only exciting moment of the evening. The Post 113 infidels got relief pitcher Larry Disk of the home team the sixth inning when it turned into a triple play. The first in 22nd district play this season, Disk picked up the win in relief of Taksmajian, whom he replaced, striking out the ball-game's big fifth inning.

Mathews scored twice in the home half of the first on an error, followed by a two-run consecutive singles by Paul Dillard, Catcher Pat Schuman and Larry Corey. The score became 3-0 in the second on two walks and Sparks' double.

Taksmajian had faced only 16

Masconahut batters and had himself a no-hitter for four innings.

He allowed four baserunners three walks and one hit batsman but did not allow a run out of trouble, each time until the fifth.

Then Masconahut went to work. An infield error and fielder's choice put Taksmajian in hot water, and the visitors kept him out with four straight hits, including a double, which were good for three runs.

The visitors pitched shutout ball the rest of the way, thanks to the triple play in the final frame which started with a fly out to the right fielder, followed by five innings of play to earn the win under the 10-run lead rule.

The Warriors moved into second place in the four-team league by downing the Bombers in the first game last night, 19-12.

The victory was a big one for manager Joe Summers and his ballplayers, as it clinched the northern division title for Granite City Legion, who had a straight season.

Mathews City, who had won 113 games to 109, had to wait one more day for the title.

It would have no bearing on the standings.

The first game of a best two-of-three playoff series between the two northern divisions will be played here Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Masconahut's opponent will be either the East St. Louis City Councilmen or Belleville's Hilliards, who finished the regular season deadlocked for first place and will play a sudden death elimination game to tomorrow.

The second game of the mini-tournament will take place Saturday afternoon, probably at Freeburg.

The site of a third game, if it is necessary, will be decided after the second game by the opposing managers.

TWO-INCH PIPE to which a five-foot chain link fence (foreground) will be attached is erected at Wilson Park softball diamond as new, permanent outfield barrier at the park goes up. Fence is to be ready for Saturday night games. The replacement of low fences extending down each foul line also was authorized by the park board last night.

Permanent Outfield Fence At Wilson Park Softball Diamond Being Erected

Beginning with the Granite Park, on the fly a pretty fair city park district Class "B" crowd, the new softball game of Saturday will provide a better place to be.

Ground rules call for any bat which strikes the ground in front of the barrier and bounces over to be classified as a two-base hit.

Park Recreation Director Harold Brown said the fence "is a nice step toward making the diamond a better place to play."

For Saturday, Brown is the deadline for completion of a permanent outfield fence at the park.

The second game of the mini-tournament will take place Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The distance to foul lines and the foul lines will measure 250 feet from home plate, making any ball hit out of the park district is also planning extensive improvements to the foul-outfield areas at the diamond, including leveling, filling and the planting of new grass seed, Brown said.

The work is to be accomplished by the end of the month, according to the site of the state Class "B" softball tournament, and its conclusion.

Approximately 500 feet of fencing is required for the project, at a bid cost of $2 per foot. The contractor is Tri-A Fencing of Granite Park.

Steelers Tie For Lead In Industrial Loop Play

The race for first place in the YMCA Industrial Softball league became a two-way affair last night as Granite City Steel Co. moved up to tie the Granite City Postmen for the top spot as Lee Park in two games at Lee Park.

The Postmen fell to A. O. Smith Corp. 9-1 in the first game, while the Steel Co. dumped Union Starch and Raymond Co. 13-2 after a nine-inning outburst in the last inn of the second game. The Postmen and Steelers now have identical 3-2 records.

John Lapinski picked up the win for A. O. Smith, allowing six hits, while Smith gathered the same number but was helped by six Post errors and a man out walk-off by losing pitcher Carol Tingley.

The only extra base hits in the game were doubles by the winners, Arnold Green and Jerry Crabtree, and Gene Grace for the Postmen.

Granite City Steel Union won by only one run going into the seventh inning of the second game. But the winners, the Steel Co. Fred Caving went 3-for-4 for the winners.

Groups May Use Pool At Wilson Park After Hours

The possibility of private swimming parties at the Granite City park pool was discussed and approved at last night's meeting of park commissioners on a recommendation by Supervisor O. H. Williams.

The pool will be available after the regular 9 p.m. closing time for a minimum guarantee group fee of $50. Tickets may be sold at 60 cents each, but if too few are sold to comprise the group, the fee will be $50. All receipts of $50 also will be turned over to the park.

Local residents of the park district will be eligible to use the pool after hours.

New Manholes

To facilitate cleaning, the sewer line from the water has been backed up into the sunken gardens, it was decided to install a new manhole between the 28th street entrance and the present manhole inside the park. Distance between the existing manholes is about 675 feet, and the new entrance will be roughly halfway between them.

A motion was passed to purchase two cork life preservers to be installed at each guard tower at the Wilson Park pool, after to investigate the possibility of an asphalt sidewalk from the street.

Harold Brown reported that net profits from the July 4 celebrations should total $2000. Receipts stand at $1000 at the end of the fourth day, event receipts are estimated at $7569, and expenditures were $6619.

Order Settled

Park commissioners also ordered park for around the park softball diamond from AAA Fence Co. at $2 a linear foot for a five-foot-high fence. If needed, the commissioners will supply a 42-inch fence along the baseline at $165 a foot.

A catch basin is to be installed in the left field area of the park to aid in draining rainwater.

Because of requests for additional adult swimming classes, two lessons sessions will be held each week instead of once in the past, the board announced.

The board approved a recommendation by the salary committee to increase the salary of Recreation Director Brown. The director has been receiving $6000 annually. The Door Removed, Then Replaced In Break-In

A break-in at Blanton's Service Station, 13th and Edwardsville roads, was reported to police yesterday by the owner, who said the break-in had occurred sometime Saturday night.

Entrance was made through a boarded window in the rear of the station, and a door leading from the garage to the office. A screen was pulled from the door hinges, and then the door was set back in place. Apparently nothing was taken.

Increase will be effective Aug. 1.

Police Equipment

A park commission also ordered park for around the park softball diamond from AAA Fence Co. at $2 a linear foot for a five-foot-high fence. If needed, the commissioners will supply a 42-inch fence along the baseline at $165 a foot.

The board decided to buy a 13x18 air conditioner costing $200 for installation in the park superintendent's office, and approved an additional $65 for wiring.

Bills approved included one of $200 for bus trips to the St. Louis zoo.

Meals of the board will meet tonight at the Nameco Little League diamond to discuss locations of playground equipment and other facilities there, and also locations of entrances in an oak fence to enclose the equipment.

I'd like to tell you about a brand-new telephone. It's called the Princess phone, and it is being introduced to the public for the very first time this month in towns we serve throughout the state.

How do you like the new look? Notice the oval base and smart styling. You might say the Princess looks regal.

I feel sure a number of you will want one or more of these lovely little phones. I'd like to tell you about the Princess main features, because it's not very often I get a chance to write about something as exciting as this new phone.

First, it's little. Only 8 1/2 inches long and 3 1/2 inches high and wide, the Princess phone takes so little space on a living room table, a kitchen counter or bedside table.

Next, the Princess is lovely, in styling and in colors. It comes in the most light-hearted pastels I've seen in a long time—blue, beige, pink and turquoise—plus white.

Finally, the Princess phone lights up. The dial glows softly at night, lights up brightly when you lift the receiver.

Why not be among the first here to order a new Princess phone? Just call us at the telephone business office or see your telephone serviceman.

The people's right to be wrong as well as right continues to be amply demonstrated as water fluoridation encounters temporary setbacks while steadily reaching more and more millions of people.

Water all over failed to halt the progressive health problem which continues to produce an incidence of dental decay by up to 60%, opponents have resorted to legal maneuvers. In Decatur, a woman has filed suit seeking to prevent the city from proceeding with fluoridation on July 15. In St. Louis county, a circuit judge has upheld an injunction attempt and ruled "invalid and unconstitutional."

Despite individuals' right to be wrong, and their privilege to file suit, the financial ramifications involving fluoridation has not been upheld each time. This undoubtedly will be the case in the appeal of last week's surprising ruling by the St. Louis county judge.

What is often overlooked is the great good that is resulting from fluoridation, with its elimination of needless suffering, ill health and expense. If every needful program were to be delayed until there was 100% agreement, few would ever be effected.

Despite the fundamental concept that the great of the greatest number should prevail, scattered pockets of opposition have succeeded in thwarting fluoridation in many areas, including the Quad-Cities, where the Granite City council has not yet acted. All recognized medical, dental and public health organizations are in agreement; who is enough of a self-appointed expert to stand in the way?

For added perspective in considering the reports from Decatur and St. Louis county, local residents may be interested in a review of the fluoridation program in effect at Evanston, Ill., for the past 13 years. Researchers have just determined that 30,250 teeth have been saved from decay, at a saving of $242,000 in dental bills.

Rabies Still A Threat To Health Of Illinois Adults, Youngsters

Because rabies remains a public health threat in Illinois, parents will need to exert caution this summer so that they and their children will not be bitten by rabid dogs.

The Pasteur anti-tables treatment, consisting of a series of 14 doses, is a painful ordeal, but it must be taken if an individual is bitten by an animal that proves to be rabid. The time spent in recovery is a question mark. Once the symptoms of rabies appear in a human, he dies. At this time there is no known cure for the disease, which attacks the central nervous system.

The six-year-old Illinois anti-tables law is regarded as a success, and there have been no deaths in the state since it went into effect. But there is no immediate prospect of eliminating the disease in animals, and it has been necessary to continue the Pasteur treatment during this year. The state has examined the heads of 1044 animals suspected of being rabid, and 31 of the tests were positive. This compares with 385 positive reports in 1952.

The 1954 law requires licensing and vaccination of pets and impounding and destroying of stray, unclaimed dogs. Each county must have a rabies inspector to supervise the program, although four out of ten have an inspector.

Many of the 375 treatments ordered this year could have been avoided if the animals had been captured and examined. Dr. Norman Rose, state communicable disease control chief, has pointed out. An animal is assumed to be free of rabies if it is still well after 14 days' observance. For this reason, it is important to identify and confine any animal that bites a person. Best of all, the bite should be avoided if at all possible.

Investment In Research By Government, Industry Bringing New Products, Knowledge

For some time, research has been a major activity of United States business firms and governmental agencies. It is expected to be continuing on even greater import in coming years, in the 1960s, with many of the innovations gaining public acceptance and stamping out a share of the purchasing dollar.

While money spent on research and development by government and private industry was less than two billion dollars in 1945, the peak year thus far, the level rose to five billion by 1953 and to 12½ billion last year. It is expected to reach 15 billion by 1962. Government spending alone in this field will be nearly $8,500,000,000 in the 1961 budget, and traditionally this has represented 60% of the total research expenditure.

The government supplies the funds for its research projects, but about 75% of the work is done by private firms. The government also puts up 56% of industry research costs.

With the expanding population and the challenging trend in world events, the U. S. must keep pace with the times. Investment in research undoubtedly will pay dividends, in the form of new products and new ways of meeting the needs of this country and the world.

Population Of Illinois' Five Prisons Passes 10,000 Mark

One of the unfortunate facts of life seems to be that many people are destined to spend months and years behind prison bars. A report by the state reveals that one number serving in Illinois prisons has just topped the 10,000 mark, having increased by 250 over a year ago.

With 4859 prisoners at Joliet, 2355 at Chester, 1568 at Pontiac, 1070 at Vandalia and 301 at Dwight, the detention facilities are near capacity and plans have been announced for construction of a minimum security prison at Alton.

It will be intended for those who have been rehabilitated while serving at the maximum security prisons.

Prison construction and maintenance is costly, and there is an even greater loss in terms of wasted lives. The program obviously is necessary; yet, each prisoner represents a failure by the individual himself and to a lesser degree a failure by his family and society. Perhaps the rehabilitation plan, with the chance for inmates to qualify for less restrictive custody, will be of some help.

Opens, 10 Cash Prizes

To advertise and promote posters will be displayed in the windows of cooperating businesses in the downtown area. Each poster must be 22½ inches in size on poster board or 16x20 inches. Standouts or built-up areas on the surface, if used, must not exceed two inches. Although there are no restrictions on materials used, it is recommended that if chalk, charcoal, pastels or other easily smudged materials are used, they be protected with clear plastic.

The contest is open to anyone between the ages of 12 and 18 years old, who are in a Quad-City grade, junior or senior high school in September 1960. In addition to a $50 grand prize, first, second and third place prizes will be awarded in each of three grade groups.

Only one poster may be submitted by each contestant, the chairman said, and each poster should "sell people on the idea of behaving in a safer manner." Judging will be based primarily on emotional appeal taking into consideration the contestants' age and grade.

3 Rains Caused Farms' Worst Weather Damage In History

Farm income in Madison county is expected to be greatly reduced this year, and new surveys indicate that the torrential rains and high winds here June 28-29-30 were the "worst weather disaster" ever to strike local farms.

The damage to agriculture in history has been given by Truman W. May, Madison county farm advisor, who says the three consecutive nights of heavy downpours and strong winds damaged every farm where it already was very wet, May commented.

Worse Than 1954 Drouth

Losses will exceed the effects of the drouth of 1954 because of the great amount of soil erosion and damage to farm buildings and equipment, now appears to be the case. Some fields in the rear of the summer. If the rain stops for a while, some of these fields will be replanted to soybeans.

"When fields are badly damaged, some of them practically flat, which will make combining difficult. The soft, muddy fields do not support heavy combines well. Tractors under their dry, further damage harvested.

Normally, the combining is over half done by now. In 1954, a good wheat crop was harvested before the drought started.

Soil Washed Away

Permanent damage to farm lands by the soil erosion may have been washed away, never to be replaced. This is undoubtedly the most serious aspect of the damage to soil.

More trees and shrubs can be replaced and repaired, and more trees eventually will be grown, but a lot of the soil is gone forever.

Some fields were especially vulnerable, of course, because they had just recently been plowed and planted. Many soils are very sandy, and waterways and terraces that would normally hold heavy rains have been washed out.

"Farm income in the county is expected to be greatly reduced this year. Most of the state and the midwest is similarly affected. Northeastern Illinois is relatively harder hit than others because the erosion is less severe because of the flatter land."

"Corn and soybean plants have been washed away, covered up, broken off and drowned out so bad in many fields that the crop will amount to very little, even if the favoring weather continues. If the rain stops for a while, some of these fields will be replanted to soybeans."

Venice Township Tax Collections

Venice Tax Collector Frank Biedenberger said today that $1,681,104 was collected prior to Tuesday's deadline. He said the total is an approximation because of incomplete rush checks to his office. Estimated between $20,000 and $25,000, had not yet been completely tallied.

He said tax payments from two companies, Dow Metal Products and Union Electric, made the big difference between the $1,681,104 and the estimated $2,014,825 due and owing.

prices paid under bid procedure were appreciably lower than original price," they told the board.

Payments deferred until a later meeting were for part of the insurance program, training and software costs. It was noted that the administrative staff is in the process of confering with the Granite City insurance exchanges on possible renewals in the existing school insurance coverage.

Strictures Of Specifications

President Homer Huber led a discussion of the bid specifications and Board Member Howard Kausberg urged expenditure inventory procedures and efforts to avoid strict specifications for some types of accitable goods could result in economies.

Sewer Repairs Still Hampered By Water, Sand

Sandy ground and a rising water table continued to hamper repair operations today at the sewer break on St. Clair avenue between East 11th and Marshall avenues.

But Civ. Resident Engineer Al Kausberg was hopeful that well points imported from Chicago could be installed today, thereby lowering the water table and facilitating repairs.

The break occurred last Thursday in a 15-inch sanitary sewer line some 30 feet below street level and while quantities of sandy ground is washed out through the pipe opening the pavement collapsed. Auto traffic has been stopped since then.

A temporary repair made last week to keep residents of the Glenwood and Shadwick areas from flooding again was still in operation, Pearson reported.

Well points, long sections of pipe, will be attached to a pump with capacity enough to handle the excavation of water. A small gasoline-driven pump that had been in use was inadequate, because the water was not being pumped out fast enough.

"What we'll find when we get the water out, we don't know," Pearson said.

One of the main hitches in repairing the pipe is the danger of cave-ins. Twenty-four hours after the break, the hole had been filled with sand to 20 feet, and at street level the excavation was a gaping 20 feet long by 12 feet across.

The board authorized initial steps toward establishing base ball diamonds on the campus of the high school, Coolidge junior high and West 23rd street junior high.

A low bid of $2,290 from E. R. Hensel Co. was accepted on base ball backstops at Coolidge junior high and softball backstops at Maryville road, Wilson avenue, East 23rd street, Logan grade school and the West 23rd junior high.

personal, $21,836,380 lots, $12,273,640 lands and $77,680 local railroad property. Major Board of Review slashes in 1959 were on personal property and lots.

With both the Nameoki and Venice township assessment books received at the county courthouse, they are being presented to the assessment office and then transferred to the Board of Review office for study.

Hearings To Be Held

Requests for hearings before the board may be sought by the property owners if they object to the assessed valuation as set by the assessor. They are formed through official publication of the assessments in the Press-Record.

Nameoki township's 1960 list was published in last Thursday's issue, and the Venice and Granite City lists will follow. Deadline for the hearing requests is Sept. 1.

Combining the new Nameoki and Venice township figures, the Quad-Cities total is $1,427,724, compared to $83,571,310 for the two townships in 1959. The $410,415 increase is based on the $46,725 Nameoki boost and $430 Venice township revaluation.

$140,000,000 In GC Last Year

Last year's final Granite City tax bill assessment total was $140,004,820, for an aggregate Quad-Cities valuation of $223,576,320.

Assessments are to be used about a year before the taxes based on them are collected. Thus, the 1960 assessments being announced this summer relate to taxes for which bills will be sent out in early 1961.

Tax levies are applied to the total valuation of each government district to determine tax rates. These rates are then applied to individual assessments to determine the amount of individual tax bills.

A. O. SMITH CORP. SUGGESTION award is presented to B. Wilson (left) of Florissant, Mo., by his foreman, Al Thomas of East St. Louis. The award, a check for $630, went to Wilson for a suggestion on redesigning a machine used in shot blasting of sheet steel.

MOST FREQUENTLY taught of all non-military defense courses is Radiological Monitoring. This course is designed to teach technically-qualified adults how to instruct others to detect and measure radioactive fallout which would be spread by wind after a nuclear explosion. It is recommended because, unlike most other fields, the radiological expert has few contacts in ordinary civilian life who could be called upon in an emergency. Other courses include Civil Defense Training Center (shown here) in Alameda, Calif.; the Eastern Instructor Training Center at Brooklyn, N.Y.; and the Chemical-Biological-Radiological Defense School at Battle Creek, Mich.

Schools of the Corps of Civil and Defense Mobilization recently graduated 1,000 students from courses designed to train individuals for emergency leadership and self-sufficient survival in event of enemy attack.

In addition, many students have attended courses at the OCMD Staff College or Chemical-Biological-Radiological Defense School at Brooklyn, Mich., and the Eastern and Western Instructor Training Center in Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, N.Y., and in Alameda, Calif.

SUBJECTS INCLUDE radiological monitoring (to detect and measure fallout); basic civil defense; civil defense operations; communications; rescue and recovery of the homeless or injured; emergency preparedness; the civil defense role in natural disasters; defense management of resources and production; and courses designed for special agencies such as emergency medical services, industrial, medical, and the like.

Those attending the week-long, ten-day free instructional training courses teach other students in their home areas. Courses are available at $1.50 a night at all training sites, and food is nominal prices. Many students also are able to qualify through their State civil defense offices for partial or full payment of their travel expenses. Further information is available by writing to the schools.

CHEMICAL-BIOLOGICAL-RADIOLoGICAL Defense is taught at a general orientation course for community leaders and government officials. It is designed to teach emergency recovery efforts after attack by thermonuclear weapons. Many students are also able to qualify through their State civil defense offices for partial or full payment of their travel expenses. Further information is available by writing to the schools.

Troop 23 First To Earn Presidential Emblem

Boy Scout Troop 23, sponsored by the Long Lake volunteer fire department, is the first Quad-City unit to earn the President's Award streaker, having over 50 per cent of the members qualified for the Achievement Award Strip. Scoutmaster Howard Carlson has been informed.

The president's emblem award is presented during accoring's 50th anniversary to those boys who qualify during advancement season.

Other leaders who report some but not half of their boys qualified are Uniwa Cubmasters George Glavin of Pack 29, one boy; Tom Martinez of Pack 47, five boys and Uniwa Scoutmasters Joseph Blattner of Troop Six, two boys; Peter Carlisle, three boys; Jim Hayes, Thomas Hildebrand of Troop Seven, four boys, and Carl Foster of Troop 91, one boy.

Scoutmasters report that reports at roundtable meetings indicate many leaders are holding award applications until over half of their boys have earned them. Leaders were urged to file reports immediately, as names may be added to the unit master list as the boys qualify.

Looking Water Line

Granite City police received a report at 7:30 p.m. Monday that a water line was leaking at 2220 Iowa street, and notified the water company.

Law Specifies Work For Those On Relief Rolls

The Illinois attorney general has ruled that Illinois cannot license farm wagons, wagon trailers or similar vehicles when they are used on the ways in connection with agriculture operations.

Atty. Gen. William L. Guild, in an opinion requested by the secretary of state, said in such cases the species of legislative session requires governmental agencies to establish safety testing provisions.

The opinion said: "The towing vehicle is not the determining factor. Farm wagons, wagon trailers and like vehicles within the statutory definition of an implement of husbandry, when so used are used in connection with agriculture operations and their stock operations. It is only when not so used that they are like any other freight carrying vehicles for purposes of the registration provisions of the Illinois motor vehicle law."

International Conference of Editors At SIU

An international conference with an "international flavor" will begin Sunday when the weekly newspaper editors from seventeen nations gather at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. Among those attending will be C. E. Townsend, editor and publisher of the Press-Record.

The occasion is the sixth annual International Conference of the Weekly Newspaper Editors.

The fifteen countries, divided by some of its members in form of a barrel of Blue Point clams from Joe John of the Suffolk County News in Sayville, N. Y., president of the organization, honey from the "sweetest town in the world" provided by Neal Green of the New York Post, hot mustard in Indianapolis, O., liquid refreshment from an associate member in the Philippines, Hugo Estrada, editor of the Pangasinan Courier of Dagupan, Philippines.

Major H. R. Pratt Boorman, editor of the Weekly Kent Messenger, at Marion, Indiana, headed and Mrs. Boorman will attend the get-together of editors and Major Boorman will deliver the Delta Club lecture. He will be joined in St. Louis by the British newspaper Society.

The conference is normally limited to the regular staff but Dr. Howard R. Long, head of Southern's journalism department, said it has been necessary to establish a second group. Meetings of the second group will run concurrently with the first.

Among activities for visiting editors will be a visit to the historic river town of Calmar, Iowa, a clam bake at Giant City State Park.

Cabbage Weighing Six Pounds Is Grown Here

Profoundly displaying a 6-pound 2-ounce cabbage, Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. and G. W. Warick Avenue, Granite City, added today that the rich soil of Madison county grows vegetables "just as big if not bigger" than those of their native Tennessee.

Mrs. Rushing said the huge cabbage is of the Early Jersey White variety and was carefully grown from cabbage let go to seed last year. She added that the king-size vegetable was planted early in April, "and just to see what we could do" let thrive in the ground until this week's cutting.

"No special fertilizer was used," remarked the green-thumb artists, forgetful of the fertilizer analysis and denying any special treatment or coddling of the plant. "We just planted it and watched it grow," they modestly said.

A Madison county farm official commented that while the big cabbage is a definite record-breaker, he has heard of some reaching a weight of eight or nine pounds, though Mr. and Mrs. Rushing "certainly deserve recognition for their work."

Mrs. Rushing boasted that she and her husband are not commercial growers and never have "We're just hobby gardeners and like to close to the soil," she said. They also raise pole beans, tomatoes, sweet corn, pumpkins and other vegetables.

The Rushings have lived in the Quad-City area for about nine years. Two years ago they moved to the Warick address because there was no room in their former residence. There is a lot 275 feet by 100 feet in which to continue their life-long hobby.

Mrs. Rushing said that both she and her husband were reared on farms in the native Dover, Tenn.

BOYS USING MANUAL TRAINING machines in Lincoln Lodge of Boys' Town of Illinois. They do wood and leather work throughout the year. School classes, gardening, other chores and ample recreation are included in their busy schedule.

United Fund Agency

Boys' Town Is Home, School For Area Boys

What is to be done with theis becoming increasingly important, judging by the number of children whose parents have placed themselves morally or economically responsible?

Boys' Town of Illinois, a United Fund-supported agency located in Grafton, near the Pere Marquette State Park, provides the answer to this question with its program of schooling and group living for boys who—through no fault of their own—without proper parental guidance.

Boys' Town provides assistance in an area covered by no other local social service, an area that children of chronic criminals—portrayed as the most difficult to educate and care for—have been unable to meet.

Boys' Town is supported through contributions from individuals, foundations, corporations, and the state government.

The program is designed for boys of all ages, from the youngest to those who have had 20 years of teaching experience.

Four Quad-City Boys

Currently housing 12 boys, including four from the Quad-City area, Boys' Town is supported through contributions from the United Fund and allotments from the counties from which each boy comes. The local unit has contributed about one-tenth of its operating budget.

Directed by Superintendent C. H. McKinney, Boys' Town has as its purpose the fast and efficient education of boys or emotionally disturbed children.

Teaching the boys is a former school principal who has had 20 years of teaching experience.

Fox boys are interested in handicrafts, food and materials are available. For trips into town for church, parties or ball games, the boys have a school bus.

Acid From Radiator Splashes Into Man's Eye

Radiator acid splashing into the right eye of James Sudder, 24, of 1815 Washington avenue, brought him to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8:25 p.m. Monday for treatment. His eye was washed and was released.

Khoury Leager Eddie Milton, eight and a half, grandson of Frank and Billie Lee Clegg, was treated at the hospital at 8 p.m. Monday after being hit in the head with a baseball. He suffered contusions to the right side of his skull and was released.

Some time before, strongly attached to his home, when one Granite City lad a few years ago was returned to his family, he had to be carried back to the Grafton home.

The boys have access to fifty acres of rolling, sun-filled woods and grasslands. They grow most of the maintenance vegetables and their own vegetables and poultry.

Work And Play

In winter, the schedule is almost lost of the day, a few chores, then a good hour for recreation and then the homework for the next day's classes.

But in summer, when school is out, the boys spend the morning in the garden, repairing the road and then have the rest of the day for swimming, fishing and games.

Fox boys are interested in handicrafts, food and materials are available. For trips into town for church, parties or ball games, the boys have a school bus.

Boys stay until their home situation has been corrected, a relative assuming responsibility or the state provides different care, or they reach 17 years of age.

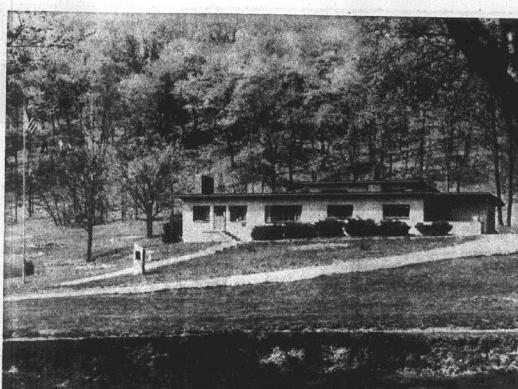

Because the boys' age range is eight to 17, the school is ungraded, so that each boy is instructed individually.

McKinney, a staff of four, social workers, three volunteers and a cook and athletic training operates the three-building town of a dormitory, a school and an office that also serves as a warehouse and residence for the superintendent and his family.

McKinney, without a secretary, acts as the purchasing agent, contribution solicitor, counselor, bookkeeper, maintenance man and all-around "father" to the boys.

Some time before, strongly attached to his home, when one Granite City lad a few years ago was returned to his family, he had to be carried back to the Grafton home.

The boys have access to fifty

LINCOLN LODGE of Boys' Town of Illinois, housing a dormitory, kitchen, dining and recreation rooms and a manual training department. Another building houses a school and garage, while a third serves as a residence, office and warehouse.
